

Risk Management for Nonprofits and Charities

Let's face it, life is full of risks. We can't avoid them, but we can take steps to identify what they are and minimize the impact on our lives.

This fast-paced, full day workshop is geared to support all community agencies regardless of mission, to ensure you have a solid understanding of risk management and how to minimize the potential impact of the risks associated with your activities.

David Hartley of Imagine Canada is a dynamic, engaging presenter who helps make this daunting subject easy to understand and exciting. Each participant will receive a valuable 300-page resource binder with comprehensive tools and resources to take back to your organization.

This very popular workshop includes the following topics:

- Key Legal Concepts
- Boundary Form: A Powerful Tool
- Creating a Culture of Candour
- 3 Risks Often Neglected
- Creating a 90-Day Task Force
- How to Find and Map Your Key Risks
- 4 Filters to Put Each Risk Through
- How to Minimize Leadership Liability
- Managing Volunteer Staff
- Managing Paid Staff
- Screening
- Transportation Risk
- Special Event Risk (including Alcohol)
- Partnering and Contracting
- Fundraising
- Insurance: What You Need to Know
- Crisis Management
- Online Help and Other Resources

Facilitator:

David Hartley is the Director of Imagine Canada's Insurance & Liability Resource Centre for Nonprofits. Previously a licensed insurance broker, in 1998 David began a career training insurance professionals, eventually for three Canadian insurers, until he joined Imagine Canada with the opening of this Centre, summer 2007.

Over the past four plus years David has conducted more than 220 risk management (including customized assessments), governance or leadership workshops with over 8,000 nonprofit leaders in 65 Canadian towns/cities. These workshops have met with rave reviews. His presentation style is described as "fresh, informative and very engaging".

David holds a Canadian Risk Management designation from the University of Toronto / Risk and Insurance Management Society. He also holds a John Maxwell Leadership Certification and at the November 2011 risk conference held the highest attended and evaluated workshop entitled "The 21 Irrefutable Laws of Leadership". He is available for risk, governance or leadership training/assessments for your nonprofit organization in 2012.
